

A verb is an action word.

A verb is something you can do.

A hand-drawn diagram illustrating the concept of a verb. In the center is a green-outlined cloud containing the word "Verb" in red. Surrounding the cloud are five other verb forms, each in a different color and orientation: "crying" (red, top-left), "jumping" (blue, top-right), "walking" (green, right), "sleeping" (red, bottom-right), and "running" (black, bottom-left). The word "running" is followed by a horizontal line.

crying

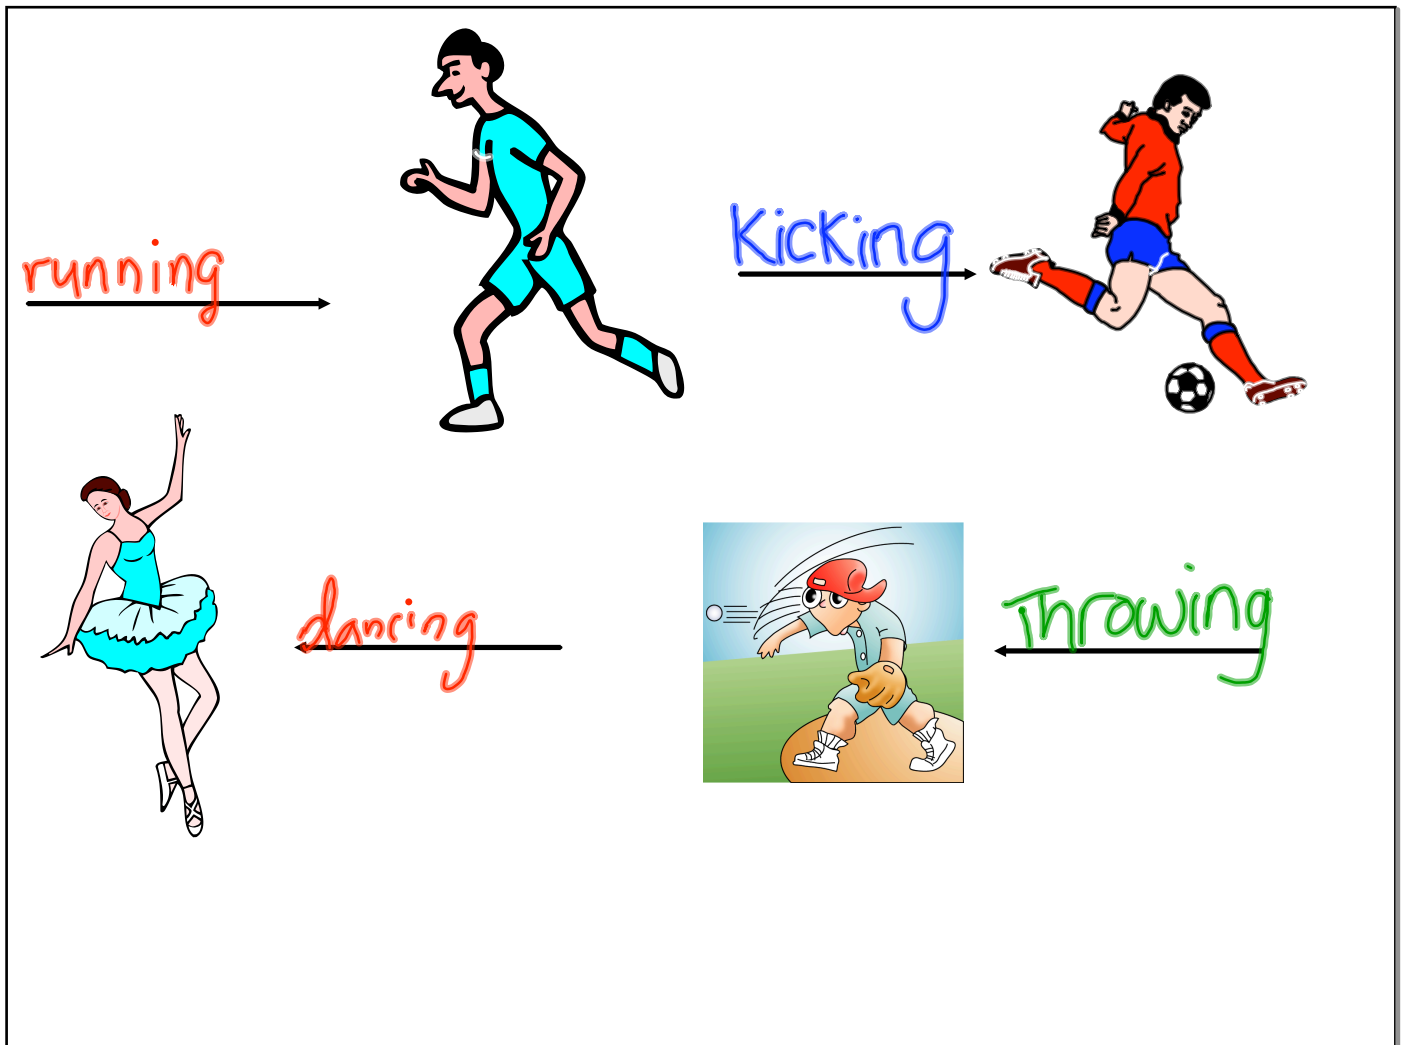

jumping

walking

Verb

sleeping

running—

Which of these words are verbs?

Press the balloons to pop them.

Jump

Apple

Car

Run

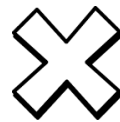

Juggle

Color

Meal

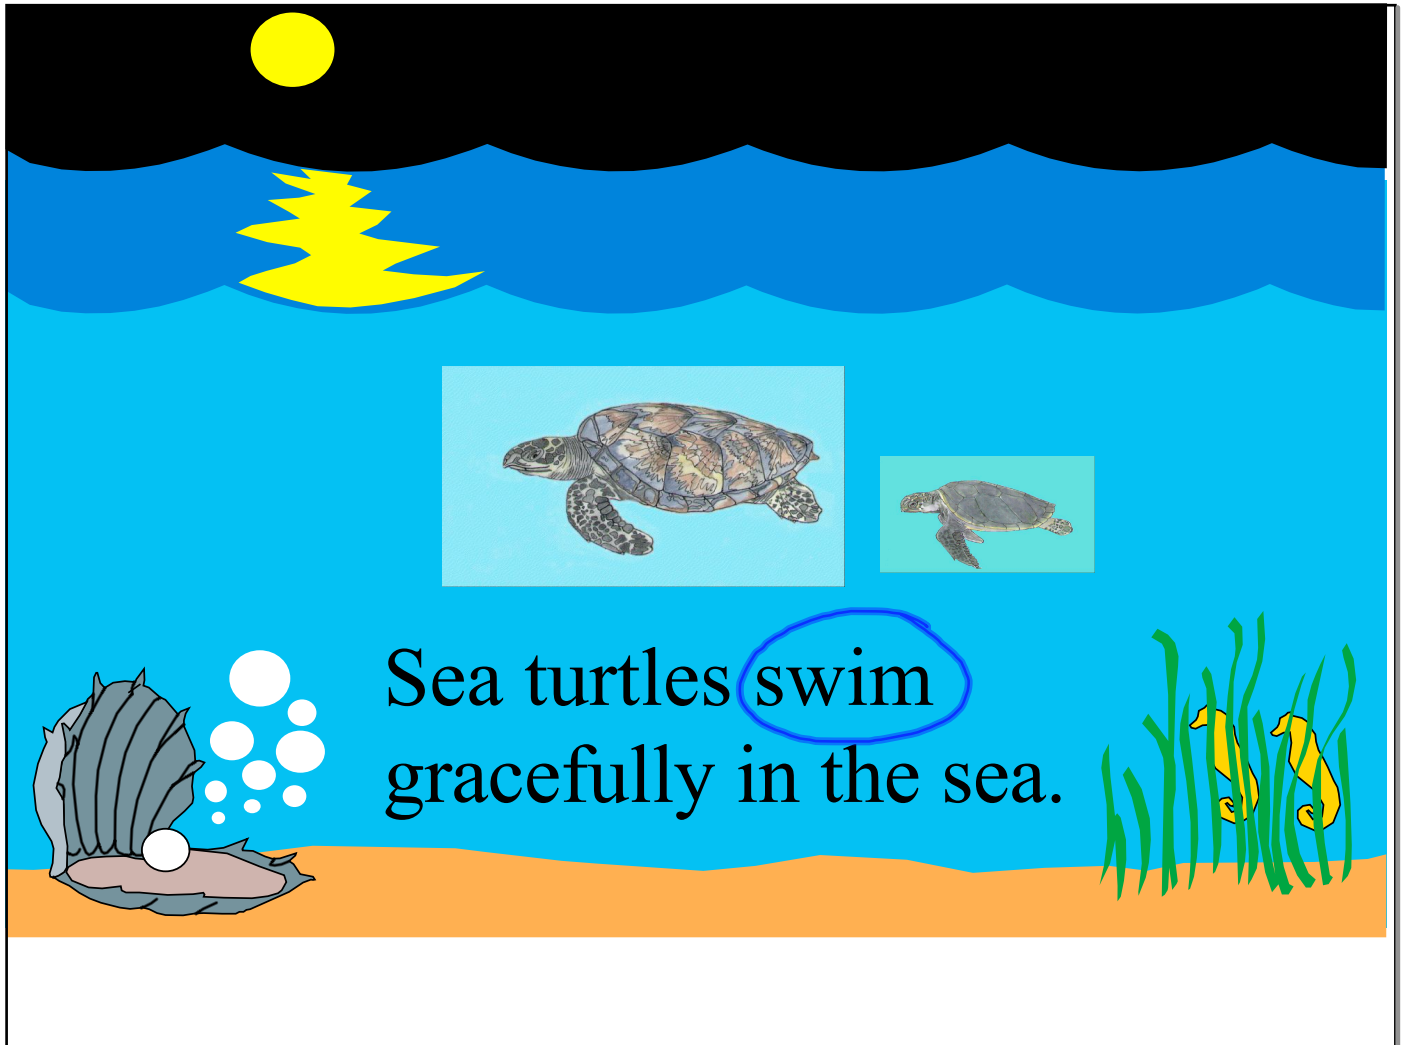

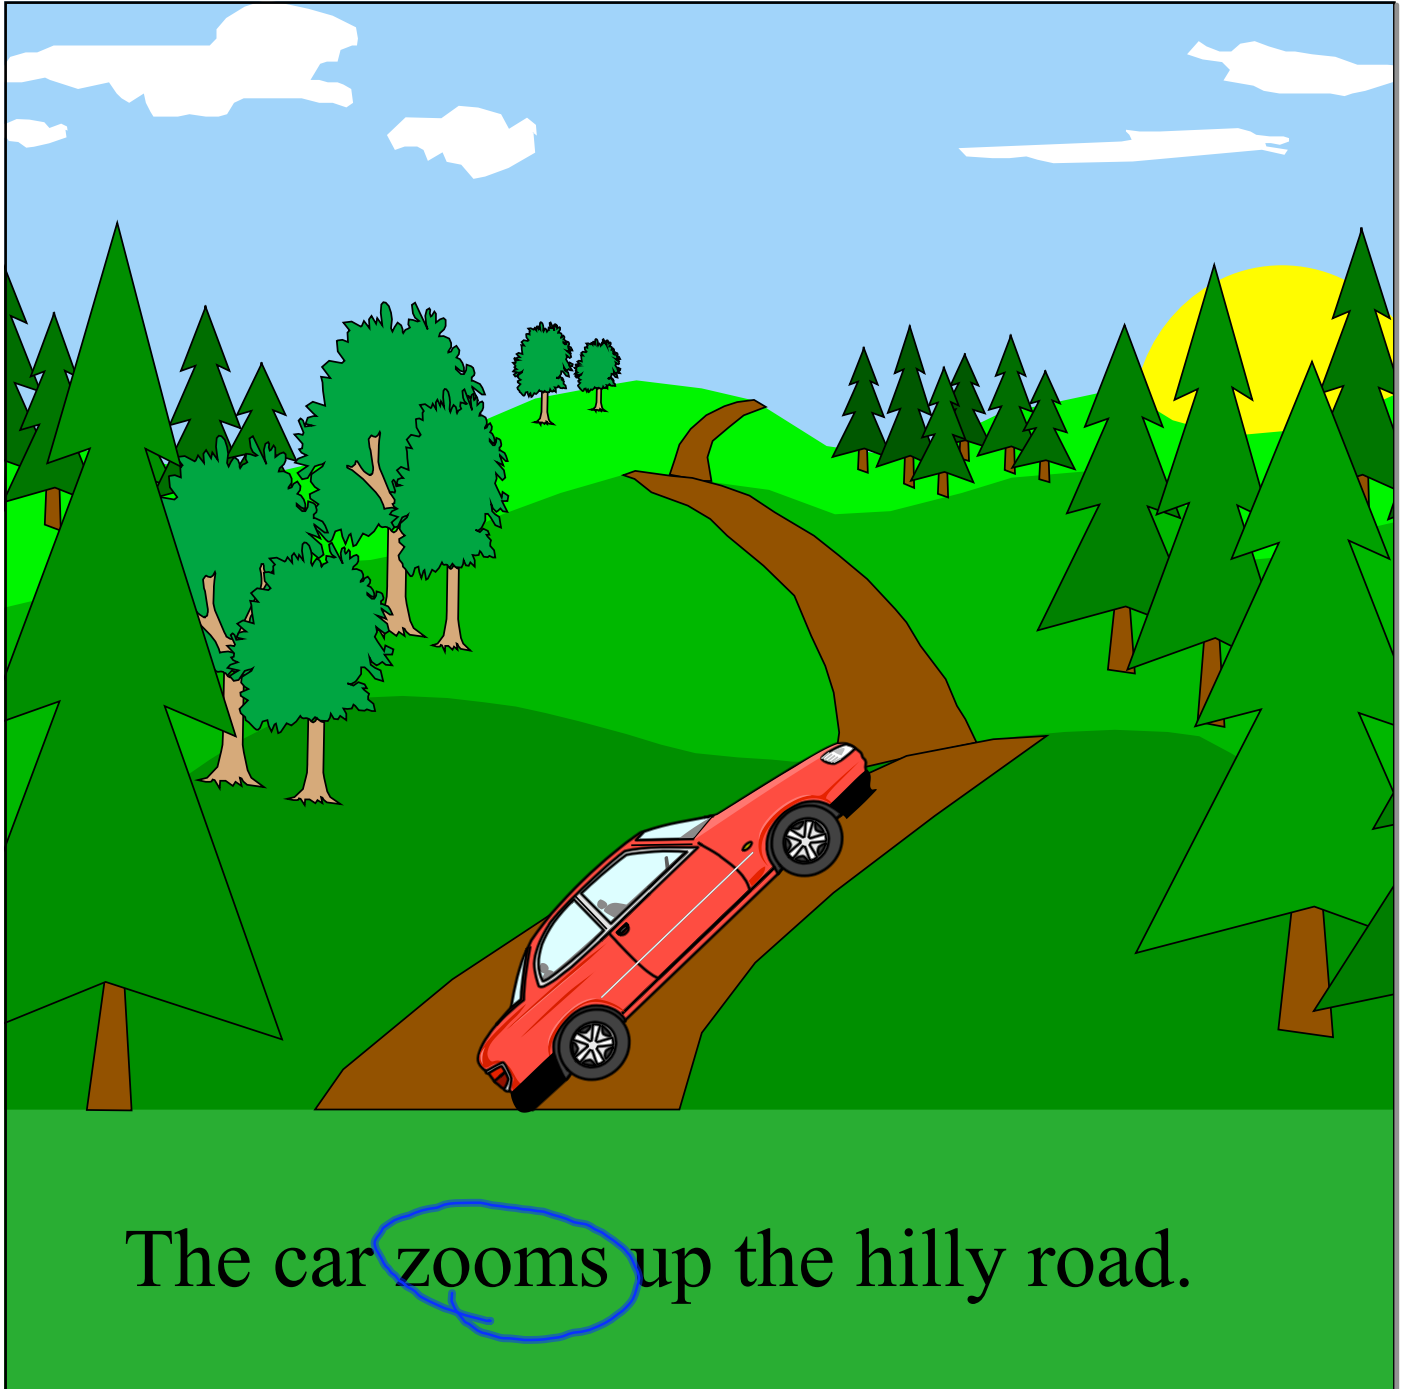

Spin

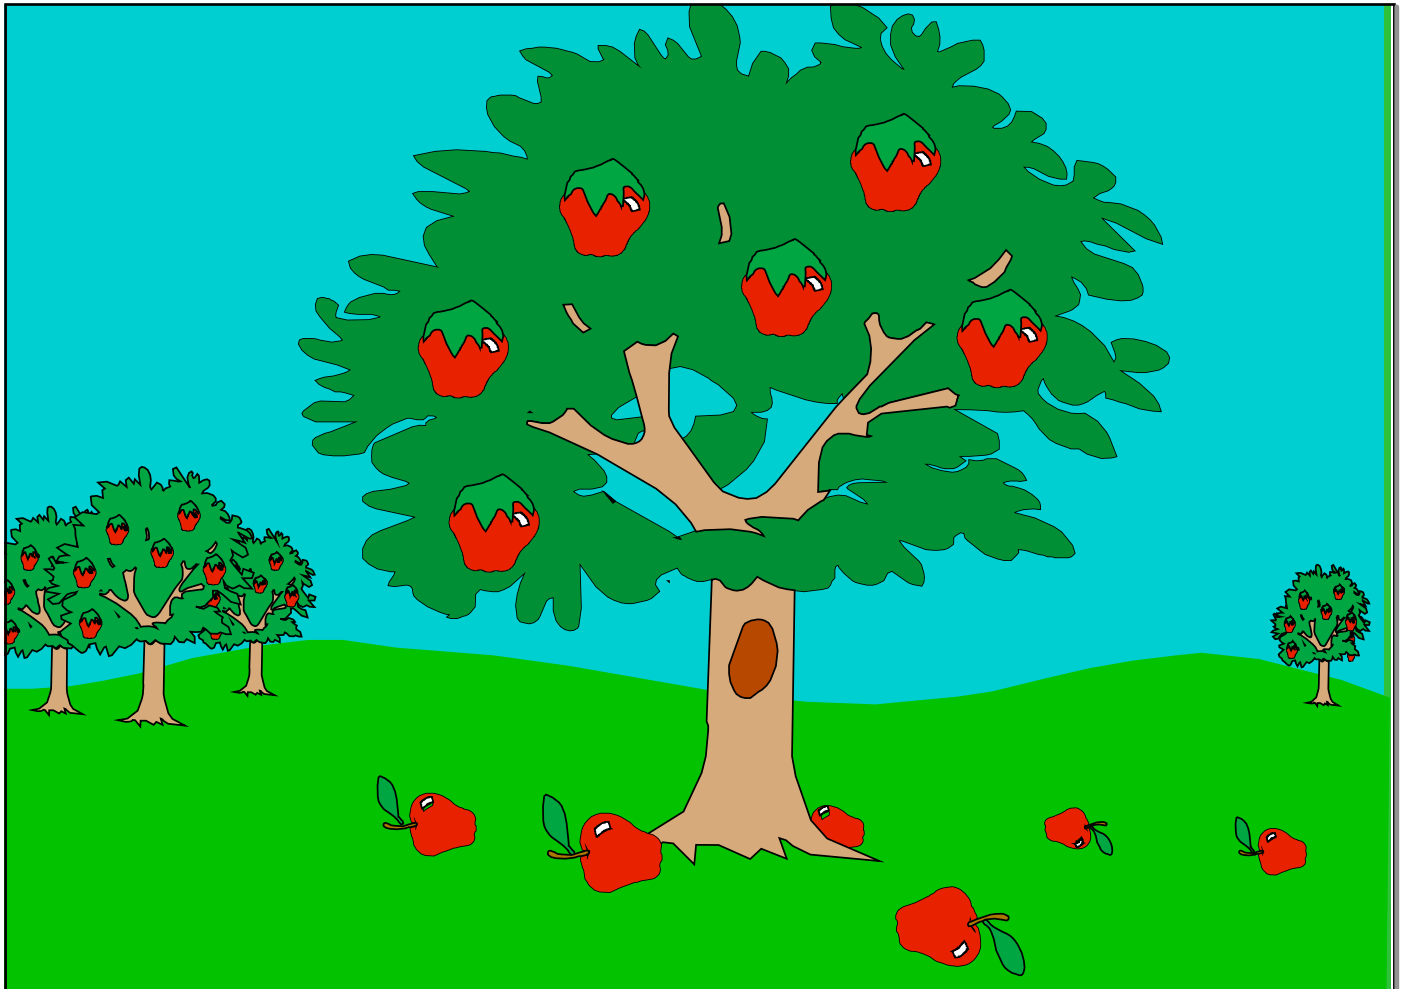

Bears live in the forest.

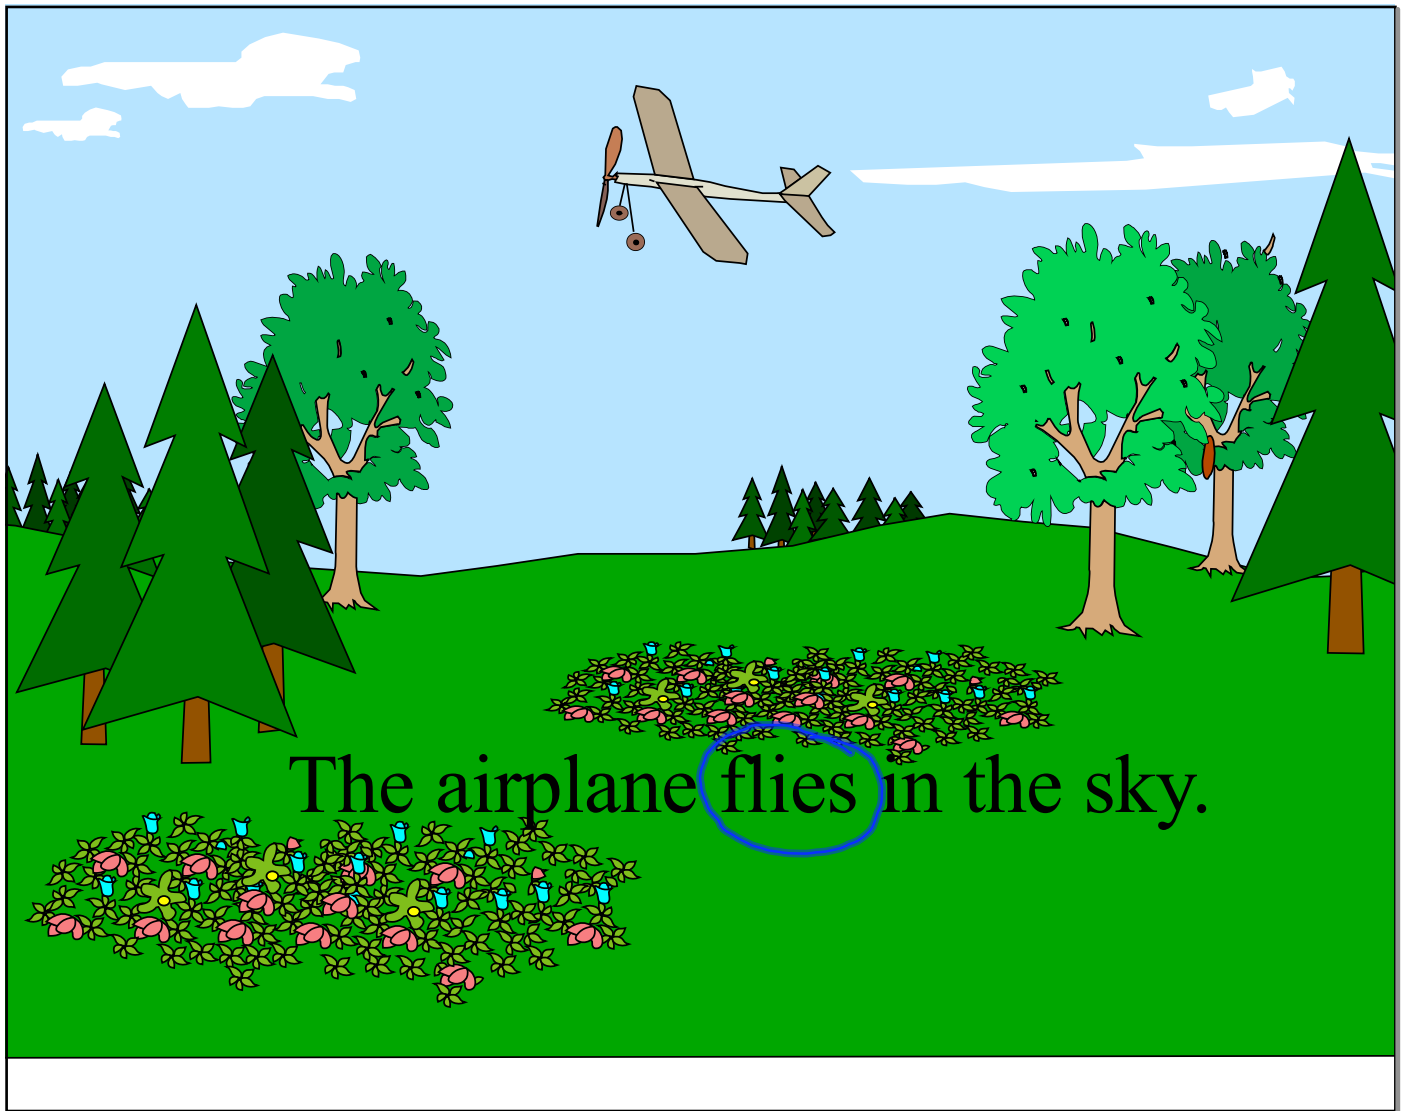

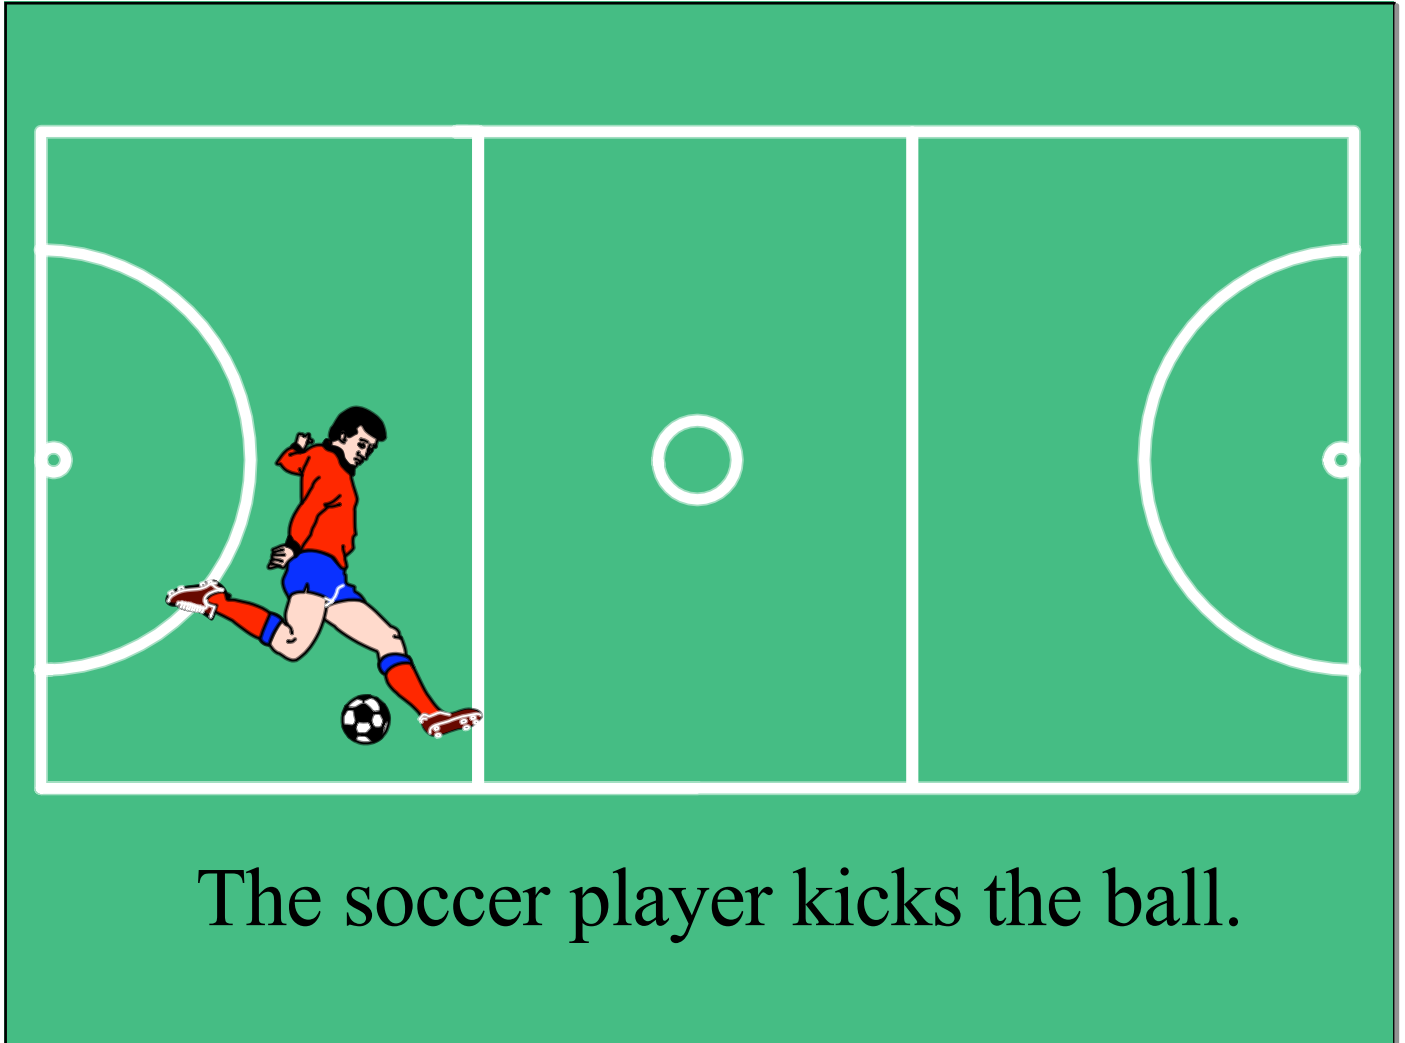

The car zooms up the hilly road.

The apples fall from the tree.

 http://www.softschools.com/language\_arts/grammar/verb/balloon\_game/

 <http://pbskids.org/lions/games/wordplay.html>